

Scenario:

You were just chosen to be the main actor in your school play. Some of your friends were not chosen or were given smaller parts.

How do you act with humility in this circumstance?

Scenario:

You just scored the winning shot in your basketball game. Everyone around you is congratulating you.

How do you respond with humility?

Scenario:

You just won the school bracha/spelling bee,
while your best friend came in third place.

How can you act with humility in this situation?

Scenario:

Your drawing was just chosen to be on the cover of your class Haggadah.

How do you act with humility when you hear the news?

